CORRESPONDENCE

From This and Surrounding Counties by our Special Correspondents.

MORG

Our school is progressing nicely with a good attendance.

Mr John Gillum, of Cane Creek, is moving to Morg this week.

Mr Tom Smith, who was hurt on Davis by a falling tree, is improving fast.

Mr Wm Smith, of this place, has been attending court at Campton this week.

Breck and Elisha Young went a Bear hunting last Thursday over on Davis, but could not find the Bear.

The funeral of Willey Roberts and one of Mr McPherson's boys, both soldiers, will be preached at the residence of James Roberts, near the mouth of the Pan Bowl branch, by J B Fincham, on the second Sunday in October. Everybody invited.

Mr and Mrs Tom Taulbee were visiting on Morg last Saturday and Sunday.

HAZARD.

Circuit Court adjourned Friday.

There were a great many Commonwealth's cases tried. There were seven Breathitt county men sent to the State Prison. Geo Sizemore, two years for horse stealing; Elijah and Daniel Bush, cattle stealing; one and two years, Wiley McDaniel, for stealing a watch, one year; Daniel Bush, Henry Noble and Geo Bush for robbery, three years each. All of the above parties plead guilty. John Warren, of Knott county, was sent five years for mule stealing, who also plead guilty. Mr Warren made a speech in his own behalf, which was a very sensible speech. If he only would practice what he preached, he will be a good man when he gets out of the pen again, for it is said that this is his third trip.

Wm Combs, of Perry county, was sent up one year for shooting at R W Combs a deputy sheriff.

The Grand Jury reported about 180 indictments, nearly all of which were for penal offenses. It is said by all that the Hon Judge M J Moss held one of the best courts ever held in Hazard.

We regret to say that our clever and good jailer, M C Eversole is very low with Typhoid fever.

Work on the college at Hazard is progressing nicely. Lots are being bought around the college for building purposes. R W Combs and J M Hall have purchased an acre adjoining the college property on which they intend to build.

I hope to see the time when the wealth in the mountains of Kentucky will be developed and put into the markets of the world. There is an abundance of it here—but it is dormant. What we want is the vast coal-fields of Kentucky to be opened up, and brought to the front. We want more men that have money to do the work; come on and buy our land, for we want to sell. Then we will work or trade or do some honorable business for a living. If capitalists want to build rail-roads there are lots of men that would work. I would like to hear the roar of the dynamite shots coming up the valley of old Kentucky river blowing out the cuts and tunnels for a rail-road.

BEATTYVILLE

W C Lutes, Clerk of the County Court, is in Lexington this week.

C. M. Harris, of Versailles, was here Monday and Tuesday, looking after some legal business.

Judge G. W. Gourley is having some town lots laid off. The improvements that are going on is convincing that a few lots will sell.

James Combs, of Owsley, is surveying for the Town Company this week.

County Court last Monday and the Court granted Eli Newman to keep a tavern with the privilege of selling liquor, near Evaline, on the L & A railroad.

Quarterly Court Tuesday and quite a novel suit was tried, the parties were Joe Estep, plaintiff, and Simco Land Co. defendants. The plaintiff received judgment in the sum of $40.

The L & A passenger does not stop at Main street crossing any more. We do not know the cause, and the only information we have received from the railway is that Uncle Reubin Sizemore objected, because T T Roberts and Sam Darch's saloon is at the crossing, and he did not have a fair chance with them.

James Hammons is the happiest man in town. He has a new Deputy Jailor at his home.

We want to compliment Yaller Britches for the comment in his last letter as to the policies of John D White. We think it fits John very well, as John is a kicker and usually kicks himself more than any one else.

Funeral services and burial ceremonies, on the 21st, were conducted at that place by J O W A M, deceased being a member of Beech Grove Council No 55. Several Juniors of Park Council No 44, of this place, attended the funeral of their departed brother. A widow and four children, two girls and two boys, besides several brothers and sisters survive him.

Mike McKehan, L & E Conductor, had one of his ankle bones broken last Friday morning, a piece of timber fell on him from the roof of the tunnel, striking him on the leg with the above result.

Charley Faulkner, married, and of this place, was seriously if not fatally injured in the tunnel last Friday morning, while directing his men in removing rocks from the big hole a part of the roof tumbled in burying him under tons of stone and slate. His injuries are broken wrist, leg broken in two places, and two ribs broken. Besides internal injuries. He was taken to the Hospital in Lexington.
